

Advisory for change in authorized representative of Connectivity & GNA applicant/grantee

Any information or notice once shared with authorized representative/ contact person as mentioned in the application, shall be deemed to be complete and binding on the applicant or Connectivity/GNA grantee. Any formal request for change in the details of the authorized representative/ contact person in CTU records, shall be accompanied with the authorization of the new representative through a Board Resolution of the company. Further, change in the details of contact person can also be accepted on a formal request from the person authorized by the board of the company.

All communications from the applicant or Connectivity/ GNA grantee must bear the name and designation of the person signing the letter. Further, the communication must be shared on company letterhead or bear the name of the applicant or Connectivity/ GNA grantee.