

Instructions regarding additional details to be submitted along with applications as per the requirements of 3rd amendment to CERC Connectivity & GNA Regulations

The 3rd amendment to CERC Connectivity & GNA Regulations 2022 has been made effective w.e.f. 09.09.2025. CTU is in the process of modifying the application formats on NSWS website to cater to the requirements of 3rd amendment. In the meantime, all applicants are requested to submit additional details (as applicable) in the format “Format Additional details” available on CTU website and attach the same along with the main application in the “Any other document” field. The format has been made available in the Format and Agreement for fresh application section under Open Access tab on the CTUIL website.
